SUBJECT Opinion of Masses on American Aid PLACE ACQUIRED DO NOT CIRCULATE SUPPLEMENT TO REPORT NO. 1. Workers in Seville regard the possibility of American aid with apathy, since they believe that any funds forthcoming will be used, not to relieve the poverty and exploitation of the masses, but to satisfy the selfish economic and military interests of the United States. Positive American propaganda might be effective in combatting this apathy, according to a selfish recommical of vages by the Syndicates and the reduction of taxes which workers presently pay for numerous social benefits ("eargas sociales".). American propaganda is well-received, according to the informant, but to the workers of Seville it seems fabulous and unrelated to the reclities of their situation. Russian propaganda, on the other hand, though realistic and immediately relevant to the workers' needs and mentality, is not taken seriously and frequently is burlesqued. 2. A liberal Catholic professor stated that in the circles he frequents it is not believed that the United States will go to var with the USSR in order to emancipate oppressor peoples behind the Iron Curtain, but for the preservation of her own selfish interests. Spanlards from the yoke of Stalin.		CLASSIFICATION COUPLET TIAL CENTRAL INTELLIGENCE AGENCY	REPORT NO.
PLACE 25X1A DO NOT CIRCULATE 1. Workers in Seville regard the possibility of American sid with spathy, since they believe that any funds forthcoming will be used, not to relieve the poverty and exploitation of the masses, but to satisfy the selfish economic and military interests of the United States. Positive American propaganda might be effective in combatting this spathy, according to a sense propaganda benefits for the individual Spanish worker, such as measures relaxing control of veges by the Syndicates and the reduction of taxes which workers presently pay for numerous social benefits (acargas sociales). A merican propaganda is well-received, according to the informant, but to the workers of Seville it seems fabulous and unrelated to the reslitates of their situation. Russian propaganda, on the other hand, though realistic and immediately relevant to the workers heads and mentality, is not taken seriously and frequently is burlesqued. 2. A liberal Catholic professor stated that in the circles he frequents it is not believed that the United States will go to war with the USSR in order to essencipate oppressed peoples behind the iron Curtain, but for the preservation of her own selfish interests. Spaniards find no comfort in the prespect of a fight to rescue Poles and Hungarians from the yoke of Stalin. 4. A right-wing Socialist teacher in Seville stid that me arguments now can convince workers of the good will of the United States toward the Spanish populace. Workers who had viewed America for many years with admiration and hope have felt betreyed by the re-establishment of diplomatic relations and hope have felt betreyed by the re-establishment of diplomatic relations			ing also	25X1A
NO. OF ENCLS. ANTE OF DO NOT CIRCULATE SUPPLEMENT TO REPORT NO. 1. Workers in Seville regard the possibility of American sid with apathy, since they believe that any funds forthcoming will be used, not to relieve the poverty and exploitation of the masses, but to satisfy the selfish economic and military interests of the United States. Positive American programda might be effective in combatting this spathy, according to a fortical, but such programda must be preceded by menifest ecomonic benefits for the individual Spanish worker, such as measures relaxing control of wages by the Syndicates and the reduction of taxes which workers presently pay for numerous social benefits ("Cargas sociales"). American propaganda is well-received, according to the informant, but to the workers of Seville it seems febulous and unrelated to the restities of their situation. Russian propaganda, on the other hand, though realistic and immediately relevant to the workers' needs and mentality, is not taken seriously and frequently is burlesqued. 2. A liberal Catholic professor stated that in the circles he frequently is burlesqued. 2. A liberal Catholic professor stated that in the circles he frequently is not believed that the United States will go to war with the USSR in order to emancipate oppressed peoples behind the Iron Curtain, but for the preservation of her own selfish interests. Spaniards find no comfort in the prespect of a fight to rescue Poles and Hungarians from the yoke of Stalin. 4. A right-wing Socialist teacher in Seville said that me arguments now can convince workers of the good will of the United States toward the Spanish populace. Workers who had viewed America for many years with admiration say hope have felt betreyed by the re-establishment of diplomatic relations	OUNTRY Spain		DATE DISTR	17 Jan.1°52
DO NOT CIRCULATE SUPPLEMENT TO REPORT NO. 1. Workers in Seville regard the possibility of American aid with apathy, since they believe that any funds forthcoming will be used, not to relieve the poverty and exploitation of the masses, but to satisfy the selfish economic and military interests of the United States. Positive American prophyganda might be effective in combathing this spathy, according to a official, but such prophyganda must be preceded by manifest economic benefits for the individual Spanish worker, such as measures relaxing control of wages by the Syndicates and the reduction of taxes which workers presently pay for numerous social benefits ("cargas sociales".). American propaganda, on the other hand, though realistics of their situation. Bussian propaganda, on the other hand, though realistics of their situation. Russian propaganda, on the other hand, though realistics and immediately relevant to the workers' needs and mentality, is not taken seriously and frequently is burlesqued. 2. A liberal Catholic professor stated that in the circles he frequents it is not believed that the United States will go to ver with the USSR in order to emancipate oppressed peoples behind the Iron Curtain, but for the preservation of her own selfish interests. Spaniards find no comfort in the prespect of a fight to rescue Poles and Hungarians from the yoke of Stalin. 4. A right-wing Socialist teacher in Seville said that no arguments now can convince workers of the good will of the United States toward the Spanish populace. Workers who had viewed America for many years with admiration and hope have felt betreyed by the re-establishment of diplomatic relations	SUBJECT Opinion o	f Masses on American Aid	NO. OF PAGES	3 2
1. Workers in Seville regard the possibility of American aid with anathy, since they believe that any funds forthcoming will be used, not to relieve the poverty and exploitation of the masses, but to satisfy the selfish economic and military interests of the United States. Positive American programa might be effective in combatting this spathy, according to a forticial, but such programa must be preceded by manifest ecomonic benefits for the individual Spanish worker, such as measures relaxing control of wages by the Syndicates and the reduction of taxes which worker presently pay for numerous social benefits ("cargas sociales".). American propaganda is well-received, according to the informant, but to the workers of Seville it seems febulous and unrelated to the realities of their situation. Russian propaganda, on the other hand, though realistic and immediately relevant to the workers' needs and mentality, is not taken seriously and frequently is burlesqued. 2. A liberal Catholic professor stated that in the circles he frequents it is not believed that the United States will go to war with the USSR in order to emancipate oppressed peoples behind the Iron Curtain, but for the preservation of her own selfish interests. Spaniards from the yoke of Stalin. 3. 4. A right-wing Socialist teacher in Seville stid that m arguments now can convince workers of the good will of the United States toward the Spanish populace. Workers who had viewed America for many years with admiration and hope have felt betreyed by the re-establishment of diplomatic relations and hope have felt betreyed by the re-establishment of diplomatic relations	PLACE 25X1A ACQUIRED		(LISTED BELOW)	S.
they believe that any funds forthcoming will be used, not to relieve the poverty and exploitation of the masses, but to satisfy the selfish economic and military interests of the United States. Positive American programda might be effective in combatting this apathy, according to a official, but such programda must be preceded by manifest ecomomic benefits for the individual Spanish worker, such as measures relaxing control of wages by the Syndicates and the reduction of taxes which workers presently pay for numerous social benefits ("cargas sociales".). American propaganda is well-received, according to the informant, but to the workers of Seville it seems fabulous and unrelated to the realities of their situation. Russian propaganda, on the other hand, though realistic and immediately relevant to the workers' needs and mentality, is not taken seriously and frequently is burlesqued. 2. A liberal Catholic professor stated that in the circles he frequents it is not believed that the United States will go to war with the USSR in order to emancipate oppressed peoples behind the Iron Curtain, but for the preservation of her own selfish interests. Spaniards find no comfort in the prespect of a fight to rescue Poles and Hungarians from the yoke of Stalin. 4. A right-wing Socialist teacher in Seville said that no arguments now can convince workers of the good will of the United States toward the Spanish populace. Workers who had viewed America for many years with admiration and hope have felt betreyed by the re-establishment of diplomatic relations	DATE OF NFO.		TE SUPPLEMENT REPORT NO.	ТО
4. A right-wing Socialist teacher in Seville said that no arguments now can convince workers of the good will of the United States toward the Spanish populace. Workers who had viewed America for many years with admiration and hope have felt betrayed by the re-establishment of diplomatic relations	they beli poverty and milit might be X1 benefits of wages pay for 1	teve that any funds forthcoming will and exploitation of the masses, but tary interests of the United States. effective in combathing this apathy. of cial, but such propaganda must for the individual Spanish worker, by the Syndicates and the reduction	be used, not to rel to satisfy the selfi Positive American , according to a be preceded by mani such as measures rel	sh economic propaganda fest economic axing control convince workers of the good will of the United States toward the Spanish populace. Workers who had viewed America for many years with admiration and hope have felt betrayed by the re-establishment of diplomatic relations	it seems propagane the worke burlesque 2. A liberal not belif to emane servation find no	received, according to the informant fabulous and unrelated to the realisters, on the other hand, though realisters' needs and mentality, is not taked. 1 Catholic professor stated that in eved that the United States will go ipate oppressed peoples behind the I nof her own selfish interests. Spacomfort in the prespect of a fight t	cieles".). American, but to the workers ties of their situat tic and immediately en seriously and free the circles he freque to war with the USS ron Curtain, but for niards	repropaganda of Seville ion. Russian relevant to equently is nents it is d in order the pre-it seems propagand the workd burlesque 2. A liberal not belied to emance servation find no from the	received, according to the informant fabulous and unrelated to the realisters, on the other hand, though realisters' needs and mentality, is not taked. 1 Catholic professor stated that in eved that the United States will go ipate oppressed peoples behind the I nof her own selfish interests. Spacomfort in the prespect of a fight t	cieles".). American, but to the workers ties of their situat tic and immediately en seriously and free the circles he freque to war with the USS ron Curtain, but for niards	repropaganda of Seville ion. Russian relevant to equently is nents it is d in order the pre-

TATE	x	NAVY	x	NSRB		DISTRIBUTION	Ι			-00
RMY	X	AIR	x	FBI			1	Dooument Ro
								No Change !
											•
								Class, Care		3 5	i i
						se 2002/08/08 : CIA-RDP		Autha fin	13-2		اجام
		Δ	nnra	Ad For Re	פסוב	SE 2002/08/08 - CIA-RDP	ソンコ	N45712N1N1NN	ც 7ე005-1	n.	637 5

Approved For Release 2002/08/08: CIA-RDP82-00457R010100070005-1

CONFIDENTIAL/SECURITY INFORMATION

CENTRAL INTELLIGENCE AGENCY

25X1A

-2-

economic missions to Spain, and they now are turning in the direction of Moscow. While the Communists, according to this informant, are at present a minority in Seville, they constitute a very appreciable minority; and for the first tire the Partido Socialista Obrera Español (Spanish Socialist Party-PSOE) feels that it is in danger of losing many of its members to the Communists.